Keyport High School

Keyport, New Jersey

Foreword

It seems like long ago that we, the Class of 1956, began our journey through Keyport High School. Sometimes the going was difficult and we became discouraged. We pay tribute here to our instructors whose helpful guidance enabled us to meet and overcome the problems we faced.

In the pages of this book are records of some of the lighter moments in our school life. The STAFF of THE KEY hopes it will bring back many pleasant memories.

Class History

FRESHMAN YEAR

In September of the year nineteen hundred and fifty-two, a group of frightened and bewildered freshmen entered the portals of Keyport High School. We came from the grammar schools of Keyport, Union Beach, Holmdel and Raritan Township. We didn't even know each other! Upperclassmen either ignored us or gave us disdainful smiles. After we were assigned to homerooms and found a place to call our own, we felt better. In a few weeks, we no longer got lost in the halls or entered the wrong classrooms.

Soon many of us were eager to participate in school activities. Some joined the band, went out for football, or took part in some club work. It was toward the end of our first year that construction work began on the addition to our school. Before we realized it, school was over, exams were behind us, and the first stage of our high school career had ended.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

Now being acquainted with rules and regulations, we set out with books and studies to struggle through another year.

The new wing was now ready for use and included two new shops, a spacious library, and a beautiful, big cafeteria. We were pleasantly surprised to find rooms painted in pastel shades.

Many more of our classmates participated in school activities. Some joined the Mixed Chorus; two of our girls made varsity cheerleading; many of the girls made the twirling squad; and one of our members even got a part in the senior play, "Arsenic and Old Lace."

After passing the halfway mark of our journey, we had a feeling of accomplishment. A few had dropped out, but the rest of us were looking forward to being upperclassmen.

JUNIOR YEAR

This was the year we organized and elected class officers. Joseph Pinto was chosen president; Katherine Davis, vice-president; Catherine Burrowes, secretary; and Jane Cantoni, treasurer. Miss Tombleson and Mr. Anderson were the class advisers.

More and more students were taking part in school affairs, including the newly organized "Magic Keys." Some participated in Freeholders' Day, Boys' State, and Girls' State. By now, our boys were making regular places on the varsity football, basketball, and baseball squads. A big thrill of our junior year came when we received our class rings.

To raise money, we sold candy and held two dances, "Harvest Moon" and "Blossom Time." In addition to being financial successes, these dances were a lot of fun for all who attended. The last important social event on our calendar was the Junior-Senior Dinner Dance, which is sponsored each year by the Mothers' Club. Our dance was held at the "Cabin in the Sky" in the Highlands. For weeks, it was the chief topic of conversation.

The long dreaded final exams came and went and we were ready for a well-earned vacation before September rolled around.

SENIOR YEAR

September finally came and the big seniors were back to rule the court. Pictures were taken during the first week of school and class officers were chosen. They were John Pinto, president; Bill Neihart, vice-president; Virginia Eastmond, secretary; and Bernadine Stopkie, treasurer. Miss Tombleson continued as class adviser and Mr. White took the place of Mr. Anderson, who was no longer a member of the faculty.

December came and so did the "Winter Wonderland Ball." Jane Cantoni, chairman, and her committee worked hard to make this a night to remember.

Class meetings and more class meetings were held to make plans for our trip to Washington, D. C. March 14 finally came and we were off! The Capitol, Mount Vernon, The Smithsonian Institute, the tired feet, the fun on the bus will never be forgotten.

After our return from Washington, things began to happen rapidly. Open House was held in April, at which time our King and Queen were crowned. In May came the annual senior play, a rollicking comedy, "Jenny Kissed Me."

Our senior year saw the beginning of a chapter of the National Honor Society to which the following seniors were elected: Kay Boggs, John Bottger, Jane Cantoni, Katie Davis, Shirley Doyle, Ann Harries, Lynn Olsen, Ruth Ritt, Bernadine Stopkie, and Margaret Vena.

Our social life came to an end with the Junior-Senior Dinner Dance in June. When we were measured for caps and gowns early in the year, graduation seemed a long way off. The last two weeks passed all too swiftly—rehearsals, class day, Baccalaureate, and finally graduation!

Our Washington Trip

On a rainy March 14, seventy-four excited seniors boarded two Rollo buses and started on the annual three-day trip to Washington, D. C. The first stop was the United States Capitol, where we were taken on a guided tour throughout the building. Then followed visits to the United States Supreme Court Building, the Folger Shakespeare Library, and the Freer Gallery of Art.

After leaving the Gallery, we boarded the buses and headed for the Hotel Raleigh, where we had dinner and an opportunity to rest. After dinner, we visited the Library of Congress, the Lincoln Memorial, and the Washington Airport. This airport is the third busiest in the world. Our first day in Washington ended with a stop at one of Washington's Hot Shoppes. Shortly after midnight, the lights in our rooms were out and we fell asleep to dream of tomorrow.

Following a hearty breakfast in the hotel cafeteria, we set out for the Washington Monument. Some of the more energetic climbed the 898 steps up to the top. The view was worth the many steps. Then we visited the Bureau of Engraving and Printing and the Department of Justice Building. Here we went on a guided tour through the various departments of the F. B. I.

In the afternoon we drove to Arlington National Cemetery, where we viewed the changing of the guards at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. From Arlington, we proceeded to Mount Vernon, the former home of George Washington. The buildings and grounds of this vast estate and George Washington's tomb were most impressive.

After dinner we went to the movies, giving our chaperons an opportunity to rest.

The last day came all too soon. The Thomas Jefferson Memorial was our first stop. Then we visited Mr. James C. Auchincloss, Congressman from New Jersey, who talked to us and shook our hands.

The Smithsonian Institute and the White House were next on the list. Later that afternoon, we toured the buildings and grounds of the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland. There we saw the chapel and the tomb of John Paul Jones.

Tired, but happy, we started on the long ride home. Even though the trip is over, those three wonderful days will always live in our memories, for on this trip, we formed lasting ties of friendship. In conclusion, we want to thank the chaperons who helped to make this trip a memorable one — Miss Tombleson, Miss Reilly, Mr. Jones, Mr. White, and Mr. Search.

HAROLD CRAFT
Tackle

Hard and thorough training by Coach "Tuffy" Baker resulted in the kick-off of one of Keyport's best and most thrilling seasons, the Raiders winding up on the right end of a 62 record.

The initial victory came with the first game when Atlantic Highlands fell under the Raiders' feet to leave us with a final score of 41-7. Three more victories were chalked up for Keyport with the defeating of Point Pleasant, Metuchen, and Lakewood.

Then the Red Raiders lost their first game to the powerful Frenchtown eleven. Keyport tried all they could in the line of defense, but they were just outclassed by Frenchtown's undefeated squad.

The Raiders now were leading in the Shore Conference B Division and defeating Rumson added to our good record. In this game, our speedy halfback, George Ruth, made the first touchdown on the opening kick-off of the game. The Lambertville game followed with Keyport's winning it, 7-6.

The time rolled around again for the Keys to meet their "Turkey-Day" rival, Matawan. Although the Raiders lost, 13-6, we can be mighty proud of a game well played.

Basketball

Keyport High School's Basketball Team put in another good season with its fast moving, quick passing squad. Although the Keys didn't come out in first place, they cornered a fair share of the victories in the Shore Conference Tournament.

The team lost to their first conference opponent, Atlantic Highlands, but went on to defeat Rumson, Matawan, and Hoffman. Then the team lost to undefeated Point Pleasant. In the second contest with Matawan, the Keys came out second best.

All the members of the varsity squad deserve commendation. Coach Frank Zampello also wins our praise for a job well done.

G. A. A.

Any girl in Keyport High School who participates in at least one after-school activity is eligible for membership in the Girls' Athletic Association.

The skills and techniques of such sports as basketball, volleyball, soccer, softball, and archery are taught under the supervision of the girls' gym teacher, Mrs. Johnson.

Both an intramural and an interscholastic program are offered in most of the sports. Points are awarded for participation in games, practices, and meetings. A member receives her "K" or numerals when she earns a given number of points.

As a means of building up the treasury, the G.A.A. sponsors a dance. With the money earned, the G.A.A. makes donations to worthy causes and gives a Christmas party for underprivileged children.
